

DEMONSTRATION PROJECTS, 2013/14

PUBLIC LAW

- Developing and agreeing with local authorities a standardised model for a parenting assessment
- An in-court model for working with a parent whose children are repeatedly removed
- Use of in-house psychologists to support case analyses and in restorative supervision.
- Rapid skill acquisition for producing a child Impact analysis
- Child outcome studies
- PLO booklet for the child (with local authorities)

PRIVATE LAW

- Child impact analysis
- Contact clinic
- Toolkit for diagnosing emotional harm
- Working with the most intractable parents: casework methods
- Better case management of the longest-running private law cases
- Menu of interventions project (to expand the range of our casework interventions in private law cases)